PREFACE.

In this second volume of Leicestershire Parish Registers twelve Marriage Registers are given, and the subscribers will be glad to know that sufficient material is in hand for another volume, which it is hoped may be issued in the early autumn. This volume will contain the large and important register of Melton Mowbray, which includes the entries of several adjoining villages and hamlets. The Editors aim at supplying the subscribers with two volumes yearly, as it is only thus that continuous and satisfactory progress can be made in the work of printing Leicestershire Registers.

The Editors have to acknowledge valuable help in the work of transcription given by Miss Lilian Wright, the Revs. T. C. Hughes and G. E. Britten, Mr. Thomas Randall, Mr. Henry Hartopp, and Mr. Matthew Pearson. As before, the clergy have willingly facilitated the transcription of the Registers, and the thanks of all are due to them. Their names are mentioned under the respective parishes.

As before, the entries have been reduced to a common form, and the following abbreviations used :—

w.=widower or widow.
s.=spinster, single woman, or son of.
b.=bachelor or single man.
d.=daughter of.
p.=of the parish of.
dioc.=in the diocese of.
co.=in the county of.
lic.=marriage licence.

The reader must, of course, remember that these printed abstracts of marriage registers are not "evidence" in the technical sense. Certified extracts must still be obtained when evidence of a marriage is required for proving a pedigree in a court of law, or when registering it at Heralds' College. For such certificates application must be made to the clergy in charge of the original registers.

It should be borne in mind that previous to 1752 the year was calculated as beginning on the 25th of March, instead of the 1st of January, so that a marriage taking place on say 20th Feb., 1625, would be on that date in 1626 according to our reckoning; but as the civil and ecclesiastical year were both used this is sometimes expressed by 20th Feb., $162\frac{5}{6}$.

In all cases where the marriage is stated to have taken place by Licence that fact is recorded, as the searcher thereby knows that further information as to the age, parentage and vocation of the parties is probably recoverable from the Allegations in the Archdeaconry or other office from which the Licence was issued.

It only remains to say that the Editors will gladly welcome further help in the work of transcribing registers.

Leicestershire Parish Registers.

Marriages at
Ab-Kettleby-cum-Holwell,

1580 to 1812.

NOTE.—The whole of the registers of Ab-Kettleby-cum-Holwell previous to 1813 are contained in two volumes, of which the first is a parchment bound book consisting of 75 leaves, the fly-leaf and next 43 leaves measuring 15¼ by 5½ inches, and the remainder of varying length by the same width. The last two leaves are blank. The whole volume contains entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1580 to 1812, and of Marriages from 1580 to 1753.

The second volume contains Marriages only, from 1754 to 1812.

These Marriages have been transcribed by the Vicar, the Rev. T. C. Hughes, with the assistance of Mr. T. M. Blagg for the earlier portion, and they are now printed under their joint supervision.

Marriages at Scalford,

1558 to 1812.

NOTE.—Vol. I. consists of 67 leaves of parchment, measuring 14½ by 5½ inches, and contains Marriages to 1754; Baptisms and Burials to 1781. With the exception of breaks between the years 1560 and 1564, and 1564 and 1572, which were undoubtedly missing when transcribed into the present register in 1599, there is a continuous record from the commencement unto the present time.

This village suffered from the pestilence, so called, in 1610, there being 49 Burials during the months of April, May, June and July, the previous and following years being 8 and 6 Burials respectively.

There is this note for the years 1636-41: "For these years we had command to register them severally, but afterwards, all things are set down as they fall in every year." From 1686, Baptisms, Marriages and Burials are registered separately.

Vol. II. is a folio paper volume of printed forms, and bound in rough calf, and contains Marriages only from 1755 to 1812.

These Marriages have been extracted by Mr. Thos. Randall, of Barsby, with the permission of the Rev. H. T. Mogridge, Vicar of Scalford.

Marriages at Evington,

1601 to 1837.

NOTE.—The parish registers of Evington previous to 1838 are contained in the following nine volumes :—

Vol. I. consists of only seven leaves of parchment, measuring 15 by 10¼ inches, and contains mixed entries of Baptisms, Marriages, and Burials (not always in their proper order), from 1601 to 1654.

Vol. II. Twelve leaves of parchment, measuring 13½ by 9 inches, contains entries from 1654 to 1695.

Vol. III. Twelve leaves of parchment, measuring 14 by 7 inches, and covering the years 1695 to 1732.

Vol. IV. consists of 16 used and 10 unused leaves of parchment, measuring 15½ by 8½ inches, and contains entries of Marriages from 1732 to 1754 and one entry for 1765, also entries of Baptisms and Burials from 1732 to 1812.

Vol. V. Ten leaves of parchment, 13 by 8½ inches, in paper covers, contains Marriages from 1755 to 1793.

Vol. VI. A book of printed forms on paper, contains Marriages from 1797 to 1812.

Vol. VII. Marriages from 1813 to 1837.

Vol. VIII. Baptisms from 1813 to 1837.

Vol. IX. Burials from 1813 to 1837.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Mr. Henry Hartopp and Mr. Thos. Randall, by permission of the Rev. E. Berridge, Vicar of the parish.

Note:—1686. Among the Evington Transcripts at Leicester the following marriage is recorded, though it does not appear in the original register:—

William Smith, of Goadby, & Alice Goode, of Evington ... ... 24 Apr. 1686

Marriages at Rotherby,

1561 to 1812.

NOTE.—Vol. I. consists of 22 leaves of parchment in a parchment cover, the leaves measuring 10 ins. by 6 ins, and contains entries of Baptisms from 1561 to 1646, and 1665 to 1668; Burials, 1563 to 1642; and Marriages, 1568 to 1640, and 1665 to 1667. For Births, 1646 to 1660, and two Marriages in 1654 to 1663 see Vol. II.

After 1642 comes this note: "Bellu[m]: Bellum: Anno Domini 1643, 1644, 1645 Bellum." (Also) "Interuption, Persecution, Prohibition Sequestration by John Musson, Yeoman; and John Yates, sometime Taylor. Sequestration, Sequestration, Sequestra[tion]: 1649, 1650, 1651, 1652, 1653, 1654.

John Musson.
John Yates, Aforesaid, Sequestrators.
Thomas Silverwood, Intrud."

The original has been obliterated by ink, so that it is difficult to decipher, but someone has re-written what they could make out.

Vol. II. contains 15 leaves of parchment, including covers, and commences with the appointment of William Ownes as "Register," 15th May, 1654. Births are entered from 1646 to 1660; Baptisms, 1662 to 1722; Burials, 1659 to 1722; Marriages, 1654 to 1722; the leaves measure 11½ ins. by 7¼ ins.

It will be noticed from the above collations that there are no entries of Burials at Rotherby from 1643 to 1658 inclusive.

Vol. III., also of parchment, contains 13 leaves, measuring 14 ins. by 9 ins., written on one side only, and contains Marriages from 1723 to 1753; Baptisms and Burials from 1723 to 1795; the unused leaves have been cut away.

Vol. IV., the usual printed folio forms, contains Marriages only, 1757 to 1812, only a small portion being used.

These Marriages have been extracted by Mr. Thos. Randall, by permission of the Rev. E. A. Beresford, the Rector of Hoby with Rotherby.

Marriages at Hoby,

1562 to 1812.

NOTE.—The Registers here are in good condition and the Marriages are contained in the following six Volumes.

Vol. I. consists of 48 leaves of parchment measuring 12 x 6½ inches and containing mostly mixed entries from 1562 to 1686. Baptisms and Burials begin in 1562, and Marriages in 1566, one page being left for the year 1572, and for 1679, and 1680, for which years there are no entries. It also contains the appointment of Richard Cattle as "Register" for Hoby, Brooksby and Ragdale. His entries therein occupy 12 pages, from 1653 to 1660, and are well written. This volume is bound in parchment.

Vol. II, of parchment, with parchment cover consists of 16 leaves measuring 14 x 6 inches and contains mixed entries from 1686 to 1718.

Vol. III, also of parchment, consists of 25 leaves measuring 15 x 9 inches (one leaf being unused), and contains Baptisms and Burials from 1719 to 1787, and Marriages from 1719 to 1753. This volume is bound in parchment boards.

Vol. IV, 1754 to 1780, consists of 16 leaves of parchment with ruled lines, measuring 15 x 9½ inches, in paper covers and contains Marriages and Banns only.

Vol. V, 1781 to 1804. This also is of parchment and consists of 16 leaves with ruled lines, measuring 14½ x 9 inches, and contains Marriages and Banns only. It is bound in paper boards.

Vol. VI, 1804 to 1812. There are only 10 Marriages entered in this book, but many more Banns. It is on the usual printed forms.

These Marriages have been extracted by Mr. Thomas Randall, with the permission of the Rev. E. A. Beresford, Rector of Hoby and Rotherby.

Marriages at

Frisby-on-the-Wreak,

1659 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I., 1659-1754. This is a folio Volume, measuring 16½ ins. by 11 ins., and consists of 41 leaves of parchment (though there are signs that some leaves at the end have been cut out), bound in full rough calf, in good condition. On the inside of the back cover is fastened by sealing-wax a piece of parchment on which is written a copy of the will of Henry Lockett of this town, 1790, with bequests to the people of Frisby. The Marriages, Baptisms, and Burials all begin in 1659 and are entered together up to the year 1754, and occupy 49 pages. Then follow Baptisms and Burials up to the year 1812, which occupy 32 pages, and the succeeding pages have been cut out.

Volume II., 1754-1792. This is the usual printed Marriage register on paper, bound in full rough calf, and consists of 50 pages, which are all filled up, and 19 pages of Banns, of which only 11 are used, and those irregularly. It contains 195 certificates. The number of Marriages during this time is totally disproportionate to the population.

Volume III., 1792-1812. This is of the same size and binding as the last, and consists of 92 pages of Banns, of which only nine are used, and 92 pages of Marriages, of which only 20 pages are used.

Volume IV., 1812-1837. This is bound in parchment, and consists of 100 pages, of which 20 are used.

From 1777 to 1790 it will be noticed that the marriages average ten a year, instead of only three or four. During this period the Rev. Wm. Brecknock Wragge was Vicar, and it will be noticed that a large proportion of the marriages were those of persons from other and often distant parishes. The number of irregular marriages at this time earned for Frisby a "Gretna Green" notoriety, and tradition goes so far as to say that at least one couple were married in the parlour of the village inn. Mr. Wragge was eventually suspended from the living—and it is said "banished" to Ireland (see Nicholls' Leicestershire.)

The most romantic feature of the Frisby Registers is the following words, scribbled on the fly-leaf of Vol. II :—

"from Miss Vanhomrigh S
Dr. Swift declaring her passion for him and complaing [sic.] of his neglect of her believe me it is with him."

The mother of the celebrated and witty Dean Swift was Abigail Herrick, or Errick, sister of the Rev. Thos. Errick, Vicar of Frisby. A family named Swift was resident in Frisby, as appears by the Registers, in the 17th and 18th centuries, and it seems probable that the Dean's father came of this stock and that while living at, or visiting his relatives in, Frisby he fell in love with the vicar's sister whom he married about two years after her brother's institution to the living. Thomas Errick died in 1681 and the Dean's mother in 1710; both are buried at Leicester. As we do not know that the Dean became acquainted with Mrs. Vanhomrigh, the widow of a Dutch merchant, before 1708, it is improbable that this mysterious note in the Frisby registers was penned by one of the Erricks, but whoever wrote, and whatever they meant by it—and its meaning is by no means clear—this mysterious allusion to the renowned "Vanessa" in the registers of the parish with which the author of "Gulliver's Travels" was so closely connected, has a romantic interest for the student of English literary history.

These extracts have been made by Miss Lilian Wright by leave of the Rev. T. Wright, Vicar of Frisby, and are now printed under his supervision after collation of the proof with the Register.

Marriages at Ragdale,

1668 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I., 1668-1754. This is a small thin quarto volume bound in parchment. It consists of ten leaves of parchment in fair condition, though in places the names are almost obliterated. On the cover is written in ink "Ancient Register of Rakedale or Ragdale, co. Leicester." One of the corners of the cover is torn off. It is a general register, Baptisms and Burials beginning in 1668, Marriages in 1669. One page is kept for the record of Marriages by licence, 1730-1746.

Volume II., 1754-1786. This is a small quarto volume bound in vellum, and in good preservation. It contains 152 pages and is a general register, though for the most part the Marriages are kept on different pages from the Burials and Baptisms. There are eleven pages of Banns and Marriages. On the first page is written: "A Register-Book for the Parish of Ragdale, according to the Act of Parliament, which took place the 25th day of March, A.D., 1754," and in different handwriting "More properly Rake-dale, that is the name in the Books of yore."

Volume III., 1786-1813. This is a small quarto volume bound in vellum, and in good preservation. It is similar to Volume II. It contains 174 pages of which the records of Banns and Marriages occupy 23 pages. The Burials and Baptisms are inscribed at the other end of the book.

Volume IV., 1813-1837. This is an octavo volume bound in vellum, and contains the ordinary printed forms. On the front page is written: "in the Parish or Peculiar of Ragdale or Rakedale" and "Earl Ferrers Lay Rector." There are 100 pages, of which eight are used, and 23 forms are filled in.

In the Marriages here printed from Volumes II., III. and IV., unless otherwise stated, the persons are of the parish of Ragdale, and the terms bachelor, spinster, are omitted; widow or widower only being printed.

These Marriages have been transcribed by Miss L. M. B. Wright, of Frisby Vicarage, by permission of her father, the Vicar of Frisby and Ragdale, and they are now printed under her supervision.

Marriages at Brooksby,

1767 to 1812.

NOTE.—Half-bound in "watered" paper boards, with calf back, "The Register-book of Brooksby Church from 1771 to 1811" contains five parchment leaves, with paper fly-leaf at each end, and measures 15½ inches by 10 inches.

The dates above given are not exactly precise, as the first entry is dated 1767. The last Marriage entered took place in 1803, and there are in all only nine Marriages recorded in the period. These appear on the first three pages.

The Baptisms, taking up three pages more, number sixteen, and on another page, to themselves, there are four Burials set down.

The Hall, Brooksby, was for centuries the home of the Villiers family, till 1711, when the estate passed into the hands of Sir Nathan Wright, "Lord Keeper."

Under 1780, May 20, is recorded the burial of Elizabeth, wife of Nathaniel Wright, Esq.

The earlier books of registers appear to have been lost for many years, but a number of interesting entries relative to the Villiers family appear in the Hoby books.

These Marriages have been copied by Mr. Matthew Pearson, by permission of the Rev. Arthur Carter, Rector of Brooksby and Vicar of Thrussington.

"William White, of Brooksby, was married"	1 Aug. 1773

[This entry, having apparently been neglected for seven years, was entered by the Clerk. It was then struck out, and underneath follows, in the handwriting of Thos. Orton, who also signs it as Rector]:—"William Wheat & Rebecca Hives, both of Brooksby, Aug. 1st, 1773, by me, Thos. Orton, Rector."

Marriages at Thrussington,

1660 to 1812.

NOTE.—The first volume of Thrussington Registers is headed : "A true and perfect Register of all the Weddings, Christnings and Burialls w'thin our parish of Thrussington. Begun 1660 where the old Book endeth." This earlier book has long been lost, but there are transcripts at Leicester for the years 1565 and 1584.

The series of Registers belonging to Thrussington Church are, generally speaking, in excellent condition, and consist of six volumes, in which the handwriting is of legible types throughout, and the entries are more or less complete.

The several books bear neat and numbered labels on the outside of the cover, indicating the contents and the period covered by each book, while within the cover is a careful and rather fuller summary of the contents.

Volume I. consists of 13 parchment leaves, measuring 10½ inches by 12 inches, bound in old calf boards. The synopsis (within) reads :—

> Baptisms from 1660 to 1721.
> Marriages from 1660 to 1719, except the years 1669-70-71 ; 1680-1 ; 1687-8 and 1717, in which there does not appear to have been any Marriages registered.
> Burials from 1660 to 1729, except the years 1726-7-8, in which there does not appear to have been any Burials registered.

The Marriages in double column occupy the first 3½ pages.

Volume II. headed "A true and perfect Register of all the Weddings, Christenings and Burials within our parish of Thrussington, begun January 8th, 1729-30, when the last ends." Nine parchment leaves, measuring 8¼ inches by 13¾ inches, bound in vellum boards, > Baptisms from 1730 to 1751 ; a very irregular Register, the years 1744-5 being left out.

> Burials from 1730 to 1751. There does not appear to be any Burials registered in the years 1743-4-5.
> Marriages from 1730 to 1747. There do not appear to be any Marriages registered in the years 1741 ; 1743-4-5-6.

Volume III. Eight parchment leaves, measuring 11¼ inches by 16¾ inches, vellum covers, Baptisms from 1751 to 1778.

Burials from 1751 to 1778.
Marriages from 1751 to 1754.

Five Briefs are entered on the last page of cover.

Volume IV. (printed forms):

24 leaves of parchment (paged up to 48), measuring 8½ inches by 12¾ inches. On label outside: "Marriages from 1754 to 1787," bound in paper boards. Inside: "The Register of Banns and Marriages published or solemnized in the Parish of Thrussington pursuant to the Form prescribed by an act of Parliament intituled an Act for the better preventing of Clandestine Marriages, 1754."

Volume V. A Register of Baptisms and Burials from 1778 to 1812.

Volume VI. (printed forms):

A Register book for Marriages in all Parish Churches and Chapels, etc., from 1787 to 1812. Size of leaves, 15½ inches by 9¾ inches, paper, bound in paper (marbled) boards. The entries are numbered correctly, with the exception that No. 50 follows 40, the intermediate Nos. being omitted so that instead of there being 109 entries (as would appear from this being the last number) there are only 100.

The first half of this Book is taken up with the usual entries of the Banns, these are numbered up to 80 (Licences not entered), and there is a hiatus from No. 49 to No. 58.

These Marriages have been abstracted by Mr. Matthew Pearson by the kind permission of the Revd. Arthur Carter, Vicar of Thrussington, whose courteous assistance is hereby acknowledged.

Marriages at Barkby,

1586 to 1812.

NOTE.—The parish registers of Barkby previous to 1812 are contained in six volumes, which are in a good state of preservation and fairly legible throughout. There is, unfortunately, however, a gap in the Marriages and Burials between 1640 and 1690, but with this exception they are otherwise complete. At the end of this abstract of the Barkby Marriage registers will be found a printed record of 29 Marriages at Barkby between 1561 and 1678. These have been extracted from the register transcripts in the Archdeaconry Court at Leicester, by the kind permission of Mr. A. P. Moore, B.C.L., the Registrar. Those from 1561 to 1584 are earlier, it will be seen, than the existing parish registers, whilst those from 1673 to 1678 are all that can be found to fill in the serious gap already referred to.

Vol. I, in parchment covers, consists of 32 leaves of parchment, measuring 11¾ by 8 inches, and contains Baptisms, 1586 to 1690; Marriages, 1586 to 1641, three entries for 1678 and one for 1688; and Burials, 1586 to 1641. The first portion of this volume, like other early registers, is a transcript of an earlier book long since destroyed.

Vol. II, also in parchment covers, consists of 47 leaves of parchment, measuring 11 by 7¾ inches, containing Baptisms and Burials, 1691 to 1757, and Marriages 1691 to 1753.

Vol. III consists of 21 leaves of parchment the usual printed forms, in paper covers, measuring 15½ by 9¾ inches. This volume contains Marriages only, 1754 to 1789.

Vol. IV is of parchment, bound in rough calf, and consists of 25 leaves, measuring 14½ by 8 inches. It contains Baptisms and Burials, 1758 to 1805, with a list of Vicars of Barkby from 1562 to 1784.

Vol. V is a paper book of printed forms, in stout covers, the leaves measuring 14¾ by 9 inches, and containing Marriages, 1790 to 1812.

Vol. VI consists also of parchment leaves, measuring 14½ by 8 inches, bound in rough calf, and containing on 6 leaves entries of Baptisms and Burials, 1806 to 1812, the remainder of the leaves being blank.

The parish of Barkby includes the hamlets of Barkby Thorpe and Hambleton or Hamilton. The north end of Thurmaston was also included in Barkby parish until about 1853.

Through the generosity of Mr. T. Fielding Johnson, of Leicester, these Marriage entries have been extracted by Mr. Henry Hartopp, and are here printed by kind permission of the Rev. C. H. Clark, Vicar of Barkby.

Marriages at Somerby,

1601 to 1812.

NOTE.—The following is a description of the earlier volumes of Somerby Registers :—

Vol. I, which extends from 1601 to 1715, is now preserved in the British Museum (Add. MSS., 24,802). It was purchased in April, 1862, from C. Devon, Esq., but how it came into his possession does not appear. It has only 13 leaves, and contains entries of Baptisms, Marriages and Burials, only for the years 1601 to 1603, 1627, 1631 to 1640, 1643, 1712 to 1715. Two of the missing leaves, of parchment, dilapidated and mostly illegible, containing entries for 1707 to 1709, and memoranda of 1669 and 1671, were mysteriously recovered in 1906, and are now in the possession of the Vicar of Somerby; size of page, 13 ins. by 5½. The eighteenth century entries are in many cases written over and amongst the seventeenth century entries, the book having been badly kept. A transcription of this Register was made by the Rev. W. G. Dimock Fletcher, of Oxford, and was printed in the Transactions of the Leicestershire Architectural and Archæological Society, vol. 5, parts 3 and 4 (1881 and 1882). The entries are there given in chronological order. Many of the original entries were so faded and illegible that it was found impossible to transcribe them. Copies of the above Transactions were obtained a few years ago, and are jealously preserved along with the other Registers in Somerby Church. Thus, in a way, Somerby has its own again!

Vol. II contains Baptisms, Marriages and Burials from 1716 to 1751. After being absent from its proper place and custody for possibly a hundred years, it mysteriously came into the hands of the Vicar of Somerby on Feb. 16th, 1906, being sent anonymously from the Upper Baker Street Post Office, London, N.W. (see Daily Mail, Feb. 22nd, 1906). Inside the volume were the two loose leaves of the Brit. Mus. Register already referred to. These two Registers obviously were lost before 1831, for the Parish Register abstract of that year states that the Somerby Registers commence at 1751; most probably they were lost before 1813, when the Church safe was bought. The newly-found Register is in excellent condition, and on the whole was well kept. It is of parchment leaves in parchment boards, and measures 15 ins. by 8¼. On the outside of the cover is the following :—"Thomas Hackett Parish Clark beginning trinity Sunday 1703.

This Register
Beginning 1716.
Serve ye the Lord.
Seek his face evermore."

Vol. III extends from 1751 to 1793 for Baptisms and Burials, but only to the end of 1754 ("none") for Marriages. It is of parchment leaves in parchment boards, and measures 14 ins. by 7⅝, and is in fairly good condition. The entries are by many different hands, some educated, others ill-spelt and illiterate.

Vol. IV.—Marriages, 1755-1812, is the usual book of forms.

These Marriages have been transcribed by the Rev. G. E. Britten, Vicar of Somerby, and are now printed under his supervision.

Marriages at Kirby Bellars,

1713 to 1837.

NOTE.—Volume I., 1713-1754. A small folio book containing 23 leaves of parchment, of which 22 leaves are used. This is a general register, Baptisms, Burials and Marriages, arranged as they occurred from 1713 to 1754. After 1754 the entries are of Baptisms and Burials up to 1812. Measurements, 12 inches by 7 inches. The volume is in very good preservation and the entries are quite legible. The binding is half basil, with paper sides.

Volume II., 1754-1811. This is a folio volume, bound in rough calf, measuring 15⅝ inches by 10⅜ inches, and contains 50 pages of Marriage forms, of which 17 pages are used completely, 69 entries having been made. There are 40 pages of forms for publication of Banns. On the fly-leaf is written :—

John Slater,
Church Wardner,
Bought this book
April the 19,
1754.

The volume is in very good preservation, and with very few exceptions the entries are quite legible.

Volume III., 1812-1837. This is the ordinary Marriage register, a folio volume, bound in parchment, 15¾ inches by 10⅛ inches, containing 100 pages, of which nearly 11 pages are used and 32 entries made.

These Marriages have been copied by Miss L. M. B. Wright of Frisby-on-the-Wreak Vicarage, and are now printed under her supervision by permission of the Rev. T. Wright.
